This Hanukkah, consider giving your child the experience of a lifetime - a summer of fun at Jewish overnight camp. Your child will have a blast in the great outdoors making new friends and participating in tons of activities like sports, arts, singing around the campfire and much more, all in a safe Jewish environment.

And if you move quickly, you can save yourself up to $1,000 when you send your child to camp in 2010! Giving this gift is simple: just give them the coupon on the bottom of this email and you're set - gift wrapped or not!
